

Anagram and Acrostick,

On His Sacred Majesty, K. JAMES II.

Relating to the Late Triple CONJUNCTION

OF

Saturn & Jupiter in Leo, which began in October 1682. and still continues

Ana- { A JAMES STUART. }
gram. { JAM TUA EST ARS. }

Sir, Now is the Time (if You Judge it meet,) That Whigs and Trimmers Truckle under Feet.

AN ACROSTICK.

J OVE and Saturn in the Chief Regal Signe,
A stonish more than May's Great Twenty Nine:
M ighty was CHARLES, much greater JAMES shall be,
E XCLUSIVE BILLS can't change Heav'n's firm Decree
S I R, at Your Feet These Glorious Planets fall,
S triving to Worship God's Great General.
T hese Messengers (who seldom walk abroad,) U
ouch, and Own You Their Terrestrial GOD:
A nd so let US; For though We Weep for May,
R ejoyce We too, since Great OCTOBER Sway.

—— Amongst the rest, give leave for Me,
T o pay what's due to Your SUPREMACY.

Being the Humble Address of

ROBERT SCAMLER, M.A. &c.

Printed by N.T. at the Entrance into Old Spring-garden near Charing-cross. 1685.

Harvard College Library
In Museum of Natural History
Classified 1932